CHURCH OF SAINT IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA
IGLESIA DE SAN IGNACIO DE LOYOLA

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Vigésimo Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

October 15th, 2017

Come in, Come in! God is here.
¡Entren, entren! Dios está aquí.

Praying with our parishioners on retreat at Eastern Point.
Rezando junto con nuestros feligreses de retiro en Eastern Point.

May we all be renewed in the call to
"Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find." Mt 22:9

Para que todos seamos renovados en el llamado de
"Salgan, pues, a los cruces de caminos e inviten a todos los que encuentren al banquete."
Dear Parishioners,

I am happy to report that recently we were able to provide some extra funding to St. Anne’s in Jamaica to repaint the playground that our parish had helped them to develop a number of years ago. Along with his heartfelt gratitude, the new pastor there, Fr. Mark Hallinan, S.J., sent us these before photos of the need to repaint this playground. As you can see, it certainly can use some real refurbishment.

Monthly our parish wires money to St. Anne’s to help them sustain their ministry, buildings and property. Naturally, this continued support is made possible because of your ongoing, caring generosity. Thank you!

A number of you have asked about whether the parish could plan another trip to visit St. Anne’s. I asked Fr. Hallinan about that. He noted that “the violence has diminished significantly over what it was in the past, but there is no saying where or when it will flare up.” He told of a shooting incident several Sundays ago during their 10:30 a.m. Mass. A gang, standing on the corner from where the Church is located, fired at a rival gang. “Luckily,” Fr. Hallinan wrote, “no gun battle broke out and we were able to continue with the Mass.” He also cited two other gang-related, violent incidents. He advises, therefore, that we wait until he feels more confident that they can better ensure the safety of their visitors.

In the meantime, of course, let us join in prayer with and for the parishioners of St. Anne’s. May God give them fortitude, may our prayers and support help to sustain them, and may the violence they intermittently experience be replaced by lasting harmony and peace.

Fr. Joe

Estimados feligreses:

Me alegra informarles que recientemente pudimos proveer fondos extras a St. Anne en Jamaica para repintar el patio de recreo que nuestra parroquia ayudó a construir hace algunos años. Junto con su sentida gratitud, el nuevo párroco de ella, el P. William Hallinan, S.J., nos envió las fotos que muestran la necesidad de repintar el patio. Como pueden ver, realmente necesita un poco de arreglos.

Nuestra parroquia les envía mensualmente transferencias de dinero a St. Anne para ayudar a mantener su ministerio, edificaciones y propiedad. Naturalmente, este apoyo continuo ha sido posible gracias a su continua y cariñosa generosidad. ¡Muchas gracias!

Un grupo de ustedes ha preguntado si la parroquia podría planificar otro viaje de visita a St. Anne. Le pregunté al P. Hallinan. Él ha dicho que “la violencia ha disminuido significativamente con respecto a lo que era en el pasado, pero no está diciendo cuando o donde puede escalar de nuevo.” Habló de un incidente con disparos hace algunos domingos durante la misa de 10:30. Una pandilla, apostada en una de las esquinas donde se ubica la iglesia, disparó contra otra pandilla rival. “Afortunadamente,” escribió el P. Hallinan, “no se desató una batalla y pudimos continuar con la misa.” También citó otros dos incidentes violentos relacionados con pandillas. Aconseja, por lo tanto, que esperemos hasta que se sienta más seguro de poder ofrecer seguridad a sus visitantes.

Mientras tanto, por supuesto, unámonos en oración con y por los feligreses de St. Anne. Que Dios les de fortaleza, que nuestras oraciones y apoyo los ayude a mantenerse y que la violencia que ellos experimentan intermitentemente sea reemplazada por una armonía y paz duradera.

P. Joe
