In you, Lord, I have found my peace.
En ti, Señor, he encontrado mi paz.
Dear Parishioners,

Perhaps if you are like me you don’t remember the weather on any given day except those in which you did something special or something special happened. Well the something special for me recently happened on Thursday, October 19th when Fr. Jerry, Sr. Diane, 36 seniors and I traveled on a clear, crisp, absolutely spectacular autumn day to Hopedale. Each year, Sr. Diane carefully researches and beautifully organizes an October trip for our seniors. This year I got to join them to travel to a place I had never heard of before. I didn’t feel so bad though; some of the native Bay Staters or Massachusettsans never heard of it either.

Only about 35 miles southwest of St. Ignatius and founded in 1841 as a utopian community on “the Dale” located on both sides of the Mill River in Milford, all of us found Hopedale a fascinating place. This utopian community, we learned, advocated “temperance, abolition, women’s rights, Christian socialism and non-violence.” Its main source of support was that of one of its members, Ebenezer D. Draper. His machine shop produced parts for mechanical weaving looms. After inviting his more entrepreneurial brother, George, to join him in 1856, the Draper Company soon became the nation’s leading manufacturer of looms for the textile industry. Although the utopian community didn’t survive, the Draper Corporation became a source of jobs and the further development of the town until 1978 when the 500,000 square foot factory was closed.

This small town, which was always only about 6,000 inhabitants, hopes its sadly abandoned plant, which they call a “sleeping giant,” will one day be redeveloped and used in a new way. Along with that hope, I suspect all of us on the trip — and perhaps you too — hope that the hope of Hopedale some 176 years ago for true “peace and love” will take hold in our nation and our world.

Peace,
Fr. Joe

Thank you so much for your continued stewardship of our parish.
If you have had an opportunity to look at our Parish Annual Report, you will see the operating costs budgeted for our active parish for the 2017-18 fiscal year. However, our offertory continues to decline. May we be mindful of the need to support and sustain our parish community. Online giving is the most convenient way. Please consider enrolling today or taking a moment to perhaps increase your weekly or monthly support. Visit stignatiuschestnuthill.org/donate. Many thanks!

The Mission Continues
If you, or someone you know, has ever considered serving God’s people, the Church, as a Jesuit, then the Society of Jesus invites you to pray and discern if your passions and desires may lead you to a life with us. For almost 500 years Jesuits have been serving the Church as “men on a sacred mission.” Through prayer, we aim to orient our own passions and desires with God’s desires for the Church and the world. To explore if God is calling you to serve in Christ’s mission as a Jesuit priest or brother, please visit our Vocation Website at jesuitvocations.org. We are ready to help you to discern our Jesuit life. Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam.

Boston College Campus Ministry is spearheading a "Stuff the Truck" food drive of canned goods and non-perishable food items (no glass jars) for Thanksgiving and St. Ignatius Parish is invited to participate. Food will be distributed through the Boston and Brockton Catholic Charities sites. All you have to do is drop off your items at one of the marked receptacles in the church next weekend. BC students and staff will collect the items on Thursday, Nov. 16 for distribution that weekend. This is a wonderful opportunity for collaboration between BC, St. Ignatius and Catholic Charities. Please consider bringing a donation. In advance, we thank you.

Retirement Fund for Religious: Please give to those who have given a lifetime. We’ll be conducting our special second collection on the weekend of November 18th/19th. Also, we’ll set up the online giving process for the Fund if you choose to donate in that manner. This collection will benefit many of the communities of women religious that minister in the Archdiocese.

Liturgical: Encountering God, Empowering Solidarity
Marcus Mescher, Ph.D.
Sunday, November 19th
11:10 a.m.
Choir Media Room
Pope Francis has announced that Sunday, November 19th will be the Inaugural World Day of the Poor. We are therefore especially delighted that Marcus Mescher, a former St. Ignatius parishioner and current assistant professor of Christian Ethics at Xavier University, will be joining us that Sunday to reflect upon some of the chief obstacles to overcome and opportunities to embrace in order to participate in liturgy as an act of synergy and solidarity with God and our neighbors, especially those in need. Join us after the 10 a.m. Mass as we work to grow more attentive and responsive to the grace of this Sacrament and expand our imagination of what is possible as a faith community. All are welcome!

December 3rd  | 11:15 a.m.
Parish Office Living Room
There will be a discussion of the book God's Hotel: A Doctor, a Hospital, and a Pilgrimage to the Heart of Medicine by Victoria Sweet on Sunday, December 3rd. Praising this book, physician and author Oliver Sacks has this to say: "God's Hotel is a most important book which raises fundamental questions about the nature of medicine in our time. It should be required reading for anyone interested in the 'business' of healthcare – and especially those interested in the humanity of healthcare.” Please join us for discussion of this timely topic.

Men’s Spiritual Growth
The purpose of the Men's Spiritual Growth meetings is to deepen our relationship with God and others in our everyday lives. We do this with the help of the 3-Minute Retreat from Loyola Press and with faith sharing. Meetings are held bi-weekly on Wednesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. in the parish office (the next meeting will be on November 15st), and on Saturday mornings at 7:30 a.m. in the Friary Room (the next meeting will be on November 11th). Please Join Us!
