CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING FOCUS:
Call to Family, Community and Participation.
Catholic social teaching inspires and guides how we are to live and work in the world. In this principle, Call to Family, Community and Participation, we remember that human beings are social by nature - we need each other. We, like the early disciples, are called to come together and grow as a community—whether that community is in our classroom, workplace or family.

JOURNEY TO HAITI

Andrise “Education is the foundation of everything,” says Andrise, who’s been a first-grade teacher at a small Catholic school for 11 years. It’s the same school she attended from first through sixth grade, in the community she calls home in northern Haiti.

Andrise says the opportunities at Notre Dame set the course for her life. New teaching techniques and resources are changing how students learn—and how teachers teach. “We use poems, dances, songs—all sorts of activities to help the students improve their literacy,” she says. And Catholic Relief Services—working with the Catholic Education Commission in Haiti—is leading the way. Every student receives a new workbook to practice their reading and writing. And she benefits too—from ongoing teacher training. The new techniques are working: Andrise’s classroom is a high-energy place and the students love school—and her. For a teacher like Andrise, seeing the children grow not just as students, but as people, is the reason she goes to work each day.
Dear Parishioners,

If you watched the Academy Awards you know that the winner for Best Animated Film this year was Pixar’s COCO. This charming film uses the Mexican celebration of the Day of the Dead to weave a poignant tale of 12-year old Miguel Rivera, an aspiring singer and guitarist, who accidentally finds himself on the other side in the land of his deceased ancestors.

This picture also won the Academy Award for best song. From before I even saw the film, I wanted to share its lyrics with you. I truly think they are worthy of our consideration as we continue our Lenten Journey, in which we are invited to reflect upon the mystery of life and death as we prepare to celebrate Christ’s resurrection.

A few versions of this song can be found on You Tube. In fact, each time it is sung throughout the movie its meaning changes a bit. As we rejoice on this Laetare Sunday, may this song and film warm your heart.

Fr. Joe

Remember Me (Duo)

Remember me
Though I have to say goodbye
Remember me
Don’t let it make you cry
For ever if I’m far away
I hold you in my heart
I sing a secret song to you
Each night we are apart
Remember me
Though I have to travel far
Remember me
Each time you hear a sad guitar
Know that I’m with you
The only way that I can be
Until you’re in my arms again
Remember me

Que nuestra canción no deje de latir
Solo con tu amor yo puedo existir (recuérdame)
Si en tu mente vivo estoy (recuérdame)

Mis sueños yo te doy
Te llevo en mi corazón
Y te acompañaré
Unidos en nuestra canción
Contigo ahí estaré
Recuérdame
Si sola crees estar
Recuérdame
Y mi cantar te irá a abrazar
Aun en la distancia
Nunca vayas a olvidar
Que yo contigo siempre voy
Recuérdame

If you close your eyes and let the music play
Keep our love alive, I'll never fade away
If you close your eyes and let the music play
Keep our love alive, I'll never fade away
If you close your eyes and let the music play
Keep our love alive, I'll never fade away
Remember me
For I will soon be gone
Remember me

Estimados Feligreses:

Si vieron los premios de la Academia, ustedes ya saben que la ganadora como la mejor película animada de este año fue COCO, de Pixar. Esta encantadora película usa la celebración del Día de los Muertos para entretener a la conmovedorahistoria de un chico de 12 años, Miguel Rivera, un aspirante a cantante y guitarrista, quien accidentalmente se encuentra al otro lado, en la tierra de sus ancestros difuntos.

Esta película también ganó el Premio de la Academia como la mejor canción. Desde antes de ver la película, quería compartir su letra con ustedes. Verdaderamente pienso que merece de su consideración al continuar nuestro viaje cuaresmal, en donde somos invitados a reflexionar sobre el misterio de la vida y la muerte mientras nos preparamos a celebrar la resurrección de Cristo.

Hay varias versiones en YouTube. Es más, cada vez que se canta en la película, cambia un poco su significado. Al alegrarnos en este domingo de “Laetare” (Alegrarse), que estas canción y película enciendan sus corazones.

P. Joe

And let the love we have live on
And know that I’m with you the only way that I can be
So, until you’re in my arms again
Remember me

Que nuestra canción no deje de latir
Solo con tu amor yo puedo existir (recuerda)

P. Joe

Reduce Food Waste

Prayer: Gracious host of all creation, you freely provide food and drink for all living creatures. You husband the fruitless tree. At our Lord’s Table, you nourish us with bread that is broken, and renew our spirit with poured-out wine. Liberate us from our dependence on stores of food and energy seized and held by imperial power. Lest we all perish, move our nation’s agriculture into policies and practices that respect the metabolisms of nature and resist the improvident mandates of our capital markets.

Facts: Approximately one-third of the food produced for human consumption gets lost or wasted every year, according to the UN’s Food and Agriculture Organization. If food waste occurs in your household, consider the following ways to alleviate it.

- Reduce the amount of food you buy.
- Do not buy new food until all of the food you have is eaten.
- Try to use all parts of the food you buy.
- Compost any food that you are unable to use.
- Speak with local retailers about possible ways to reduce waste.

Little Rock Scripture Study

This semester, we will be studying “Parables of the Kingdom- Part One.” Some of the most memorable teachings of Jesus were delivered as parables and are found in the gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke. This study explores those parables crafted by Mark, and then turns attention to the same parables as they appear in Matthew with a slightly different twist. The study begins on Wednesday, March 14th, at 7:15 p.m. in the Old Choir Room. The cost is $25.00 which includes a commentary, study guide and video presentation of the study. New members are always welcome. To register, or if you have any questions, please call John Dafarra (781) 899-9540.

Eucharistic Ministers Needed!

Would you be willing to visit St. Elizabeth Medical Center once a week? You will easily be trained to offer Holy Communion to our patients. If interested, please call Fr. Salamone at 617-789-2609 or Maureen Higgins at 617-789-2093.
