We have come to know and to believe in the love God has for us.

Hemos venido a conocer y creer en el amor que Dios nos Tiene.
Dear Parishioners,

Here we are together again at the time of the Ascension when Jesus departed his earthly home of some thirty-three years. After more than thirty-three years here, I am planning for my own departure from service to the St. Ignatius community. I am looking forward to living life in a different rhythm, creating some space for new experiences and more time for family and travel.

I’m so appreciative of my years at St. Ignatius, which have formed me as a musician, a minister of the liturgy and as a person of faith. It has been a privilege to be among people who value the liturgy and understand that the intentional way we celebrate is the communal expression of our thanks, praise and our love for God.

I am profoundly humbled when I reflect on the good fortune I have had to collaborate with so many fine people over the years. I have enjoyed the support of this parish in so many ways: through the resources you have put at my disposal, by your generous response to my music, and through your continued personal expressions of appreciation over the years.

My hope is that my time here has created music that enabled each of you to encounter God and that what I leave behind allows that encounter to continue after I retire later this summer. Just as Jesus left his disciples to take up his mission, you will continue to be served by many gifted music ministers who are devoted to singing and playing music here for the Greater Glory of God. With your continued support of them, I am confident that good things will continue to happen for years to come. I thank you all.

Michael Burgo

Estimados Feligreses:

Aquí estamos juntos otra vez en el tiempo de Ascensión, cuando Jesús partió del que fue su hogar mundano por treinta y tres años. Después de más de treinta y tres años aquí, estoy planeando mi salida del servicio a la comunidad de San Ignacio. Estoy esperando vivir una vida a un ritmo diferente, creando espacio para nuevas experiencias, y dedicar más tiempo a la familia y a viajar.

Estoy muy agradecido de mis años en San Ignacio, los cuales me han formado como músico, ministro de la liturgia y como persona de fe. Ha sido un privilegio de estar entre gente que valora la liturgia y entiende que la forma intencional como celebramos es expresión comunal para dar gracias, alabar y amar a nuestro Dios.

Me siento profundamente pequeño cuando reflexiono en la buena suerte que he tenido al colaborar con tantas buenas personas a lo largo de los años. He disfrutado del apoyo que me ha dado esta parroquia de diversas maneras: a través de los recursos que ustedes han puesto a mi disposición, por medio de su respuesta generosa a mi música, y a través de sus continuas expresiones personales de aprecio a través de los años.

Mi deseo es que mi estancia aquí haya creado música que haya hecho posible que cada uno de ustedes encuentre a Dios, y lo que yo deje, permita que ese encuentro continúe después que me retire más tarde en el verano. Así como Jesús dejó a sus discípulos para que llevaran a cabo su misión, ustedes continuarán siendo servidos por muchos ministros de música talentosos, que están dedicados a cantar y tocar música aquí, para Mayor Gloria de Dios. Con su apoyo continuo a ellos, estoy seguro de que cosas buenas continuarán sucediendo en los años venideros. Les doy las gracias a todos.

Parish Office Living Room

There will be a discussion of the novel My Name is Lucy Barton by Elizabeth Strout in the parish office on May 20th. One reviewer has this to say about the book, “This is a story about the human condition. Of happiness. And sadness. Of love. And hate. This is a story of life—childhood, marriage, motherhood. It’s all here in very short book that will grab your heart and not let go. It is a simple story written in exquisite prose with a sophisticated message. This is as nearly perfect as a novel can be.” Join the discussion and let us know your response to this book.

Meetings are held on first and third Wednesday of each month at 7:00 p.m., in the parish office (the next meeting will be on May 16th). New members are always welcome.

Evangelization Focus

“Evangelization must be the first focus of our Church. Then, the corporal and spiritual works of mercy, which result from living and sharing the Gospel, will transform the culture around us. We have the mission to ‘repair the world,’ what the Jews call ‘Tikkun olam.’”

~Cardinal Sean O’Malley
