Dear Parishioners,

This year both our celebration of Trinity Sunday and Memorial Day weekend happen to coincide.

It is truly a weekend to give honor. The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity calls us to honor the mystery of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the relationship of one God in three divine persons, while Memorial Day weekend calls us to honor those veterans who have died in military service for our country.

Whenever we honor, we remember, but we also “re-mem-ber.” That is, when we honor our Triune God, we do not simply call our God to mind in remembrance of the trinitarian mystery, but we raise our minds along with our hearts to connect ourselves more consciously and totally as a faith community with the community of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit; we thus “re-member” with our God. [We actually are called to remember and “re-member” at every Mass throughout the year.] Similarly, on Memorial Day weekend we do not simply remember the fallen dead, but we connect ourselves with them. We engage in “re-membering,” having faith, because of Christ’s resurrection, that they always remain members, in some mysterious way, of our community and are always a part of us.

As we engage in the process of remembering and are consoled by “re-membering,” we might also be keenly and dreadfully aware that far too many of the veterans we honor were actually physically “dis-membered.” Limb from limb were all too often torn from their bodies as bombs and hand grenades exploded. The absolute horror of war sadly stands in stark contrast to the love relationship within the Blessed Trinity.

On the one hand, our God is a divine and eternal community of love. Love resides in God’s very self. Mysteriously and beautifully God can be seen analogously as lover (the Father), beloved (the Son) and love (the Holy Spirit). Nevertheless, no matter how we image the Trinity, the bottom line is that we are meant to reflect and model here on earth, with and among one another, God’s love within God’s very self and God’s love for us.

On the other hand, sin, with its revengeful, violent, warlike tendencies, has often made us, throughout human history, instruments not of love, but of the destructive dismemberment of one another. In fact, we continue to have various ways in which we literally and figuratively “dis-member” one another even outside of times of war. We do it in the Church, in our country and throughout the world. I am reminded of Peter, Paul and Mary’s 1960’s song “Where Have All the Flowers Gone?” with its recurrent question: “when will they ever learn?” Woefully, we must still ask that today and every day. When will we learn that all of us are one family, sisters and brothers?

Estimados Feligreses:

Este año, las celebraciones del domingo de la Trinidad y el fin de semana del Recuerdo coinciden.

Realmente, es un fin de semana para dar honra. La Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad nos llama a honrar el misterio del Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo, la relación de un Dios en tres divinas personas, mientras que el fin de semana del Recuerdo nos llama a honrar a aquellos veteranos que han muerto sirviendo a la patria.

Cada vez que honramos, recordamos, y también “re-membramos.” Esto es, cuando honramos a nuestro Dios Trino y uno, no sólo lo tenemos en mente como recuerdo del misterio trinitario, sino elevamos nuestras mentes junto con nuestro corazón a conectarnos más consciente y totalmente como comunidad de fe con la comunidad del Padre, el Hijo y del Espíritu Santo; por lo tanto, nos “re-membramos” con nuestro Dios. [Ciertamente estamos llamados a recordar y a “re-membrar” en cada Misa durante el año.] De manera similar en el fin de semana del Recuerdo no sólo recordamos a los muertos caídos, sino nos conectamos con ellos. Nos engranamos en “re-membrarlos”, teniendo fe, a través de la resurrección de Cristo, de que ellos permanecerán como miembros, de alguna manera misteriosa, de nuestra comunidad y siempre serán una parte de nosotros.

Al involucrarnos en el proceso de recordar y ser consolados por el “re-membrar,” es posible que tomemos conciencia de una manera profunda y terrible que muchos de los veteranos que honramos fueron actualmente “des-membrados.” Muchas de sus extremidades fueron separadas de sus cuerpos, siendo despedazados al explotarles bombas y granadas de mano. El horror absoluto de la guerra se mantiene en rígido contraste con la relación amorosa existente en la santísima Trinidad.

Por un lado, nuestro Dios es una comunidad eterna y divina de amor. El amor reside en Dios mismo. Dios puede ser visto misteriosamente y bellamente como una analogía del amante (el Padre), el amado (el Hijo) y el amor (el Espíritu Santo). No obstante, si importar cómo imaginamos la Trinidad, lo importante es que estamos destinados a reflejar y modelar aquí en la tierra el amor de Dios con y entre cada uno de nosotros, dentro del mismo Dios y con el amor que Dios nos tiene.

Por otra parte, el pecado, con sus tendencias vergativas, violentas y belicosas, nos ha hecho, a lo largo de la historia humana, no instrumentos del amor, sino el desmembramiento destructivo de unos y otros. De hecho, continuamos teniendo maneras en las que literal y figurativamente nos “des-membramos,” aun fuera de tiempos de guerra. Lo hacemos en la Iglesia, en nuestro país y en todo el mundo. Me recuerdo de la canción de los años 60 de Peter Paul y Mary “¿Dónde se han ido las flores?” con su pregunta recurrente: “¿Cuándo lo aprenderán?” Lam.

entablemente, todavía debemos preguntárnosla, todos y cada uno de los días. ¿Cuándo aprenderemos que todos nosotros somos una familia, hermanas y hermanos, creados en amor para amar?

Que nuestro Dios, en este fin de semana de la Trinidad/del Recuerdo nos ayude a aprender a amar de una manera más plena, de modo que cuando estemos tentados a “des-membrar,” recordemos siempre de “re-membrar”, y así de ayudarnos a crecer juntos como comunidad humana y mundial de amor, hijos de un Dios Trino y Uno.

brothers, created in love to love?

May our God on this Trinity/Memorial Day Weekend help us to learn to love more fully so that even when tempted to “dis-member” we remember always to “re-member,” and thereby help one another grow together as a human, worldwide community of love, children of our Triune God.

Community Morning Retreat with Creation
Saturday, June 2nd
9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.
St. Ignatius Parish Office, Garden Level

In follow up to our wonderful Earth Day weekend, we will be gathering to celebrate creation and our role in caring for the earth!

The morning will begin in nature, praying and connecting with creation. We will then reflect on how we might “hear the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor” as invited by Pope Francis in his encyclical Laudato Si. There will be times of interactive exercises, reflection, and community-building as we explore how we as individuals and as a parish might be faithful stewards of creation. Prepare to leave energized with hope, connection, and ready for action.

This is a family-friendly event. Please register by Tuesday, May 29th to Debra at debracpackard@gmail.com

Prayer:
God of all creation,
At the beginning of time
You placed a single mandate on humankind-
To be stewards of creation
To replenish and nurture though all generations
What you have made.
Help us to be faithful stewards through our actions.

Action: Get a more sustainable shave. EPA estimates that Americans toss 2 billion disposable razors annually resulting in mountains of plastic. A slightly better alternative is a reusable plastic razor that takes replacement blade cartridges. Consider a safety razor – double edge or straight-edge razor (best close shave). Consider an electric shaver -- and best of all, see if you can find a solar-charging model.

Men’s Spiritual Growth

The purpose of the Men's Spiritual Growth meetings is to deepen our relationship with God and others in our everyday lives. We do this with the help of the 3-Minute Retreat from Loyola Press and with faith sharing. Meetings are held on first and third Wednesday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the parish office (the next meeting will be on June 6th). New members are always welcome!

Book Discussion

June 24th at 11:15 a.m.
Parish Office Living Room
Join us for a discussion of the book The Line Becomes a River: Dispatches From The Border by Francesco Cantú. For the author, the border is in his blood: his mother, a park ranger and daughter of a Mexican immigrant, raised him in the scrublands of the Southwest. Haunted by the landscape of his youth, Cantú joins the Border Patrol. This book goes behind the headlines, making urgent and personal the violence our border wreaks on both sides of the line. Come on June 24th to discuss Cantú’s closeup and personal story of his work with the U.S. Border Patrol.

Evangelization Focus

"Evangelization must be the first focus of our Church. Then, the corporal and spiritual works of mercy, which result from living and sharing the Gospel, will transform the culture around us. We have the mission ‘to repair the world,’ what the Jews call ‘Tikkun olam’.

~Cardinal Seán O’Malley
