For today the feast is holden,
When the institution olden
Of that supper was rehearsed.

Parque hoy la fiesta se mantiene,
Cuando la antigua institución
De esa cena fue reiterada.

from the Sequence of the day
Dear Parishioners,

This past Thursday, May 31st, we celebrated the one-year anniversary of our parish’s first gathering of the Peace, Justice & Reconciliation Commission.

It is interesting to note that in the bulletin letter last year on June 18th, the Feast Day of The Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), that we celebrate this weekend, I tried to offer a bit of an explanation of the reasons for such a Commission.

I spoke in that letter of the words attributed to St. Teresa of Avila and popularized in the music and lyrics of John Michael Talbot:

Christ has no body now but yours
No hands, no feet on earth but yours
Yours are the eyes through which He looks
Compassion on this world
Yours are the feet with which He walks to do good
Yours are the hands with which He blesses all the world
Yours are the hands
Yours are the feet
Yours are the eyes
You are His body

Christ has no body now on earth but yours.

I went on to explain that one of the many ways a parish community becomes the hands, feet, eyes, and compassion of Christ—becoming truly Christ’s Body – is through its commitment to corporal and spiritual works of mercy. Our parish actually has had, as I pointed out, an extremely rich and dedicated history of commitment to these works.

I also pointed out, however, that we need, as a Jesuit parish, to continue to strive for the magis (the greater). [The magis is actually part of the motto of the Society of Jesus: Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam or simply AMDG (For the Greater Glory of God).] The magis invites us to take risks. With that, I invited us to support and participate in our parish’s newest risk: “our fledgling Peace, Justice and Reconciliation Commission.”

I am happy to say that in its first year this new Commission has developed a wonderfully succinct and incisive mission statement: The Peace, Justice, and Reconciliation Commission educates and connects our St. Ignatius parish community to better understand the root causes of injustice as we inspire action for social justice and equity in our communities and throughout the world.

Moreover, given the current members, at this time, along with their particular interests, they have decided to form four sub-groups: Environment, Immigration, Racism, and Parish Engagement. Through items in our bulletin, programs that they offer, petitions they invite us to sign, and actions they encourage us to take, these sub-groups have helped to educate and motivate us as a parish in the ongoing work of social and environmental justice.

Estimados feligreses:

El jueves pasado, 31 de mayo, celebramos el primer aniversario de la primera reunión de la Comisión de Paz, Justicia y Reconciliación.

Es interesante hacer notar que en la carta del boletín del 18 de junio del año pasado, la Fiesta del Cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo (Corpus Christi), la cual celebramos este fin de semana, traté de explicar un poco las razones de tener esta Comisión.

En esa carta hablé de las palabras atribuidas a Sta. Teresa de Ávila, popularizadas en la letra y música de John Michael Talbot:

Cristo no tiene cuerpo, sino el tuyo
No tienes manos, o pies en la tierra, sino los tuyos
Tuyos son los ojos con los que ve
La compasión en este mundo
Tuyos son los pies con los que camina para hacer el bien,
Tuyos son las manos, con las que bendice todo el mundo.

Tuyos son las manos,
Tuyos son los pies,
Tuyos son los ojos,
Eres tú Su cuerpo.

Cristo no tiene otro cuerpo sino el tuyo,

Seguí explicando que una de las muchas maneras en las que una parroquia se convierte en las manos, los pies, los ojos y la compasión de Cristo – convirtiéndose verdaderamente en el Cuerpo de Cristo – es a través de su compromiso de hacer obras de misericordia corporales y espirituales. Nuestra parroquia ha tenido, como lo señalé, una historia extremadamente rica y dedicada de compromiso a dichas obras.

También resalté, sin embargo, que necesitamos, como parroquia jesuita, continuar esforzándonos por el magis (lo mejor). [El magis es parte del lema de la Sociedad de Jesús: Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam, o simplemente, AMDG (Para Mayor Gloria de Dios).] El magis nos invita a arriesgarnos. Con eso, los invitó a apoyar y participar nuestro nuevo riesgo parroquial: “nuestra nueva Comisión de Paz, Justicia y Reconciliación.”

Me alegra decir que en su primer año, esta nueva Comisión ha desarrollado un maravilloso, sucinto e incisivo enunciado de su misión: La Comisión de Paz, Justicia y Reconciliación educa y conecta a nuestra comunidad parroquial de San Ignacio a entender mejor las causas que originan la injusticia mientras inspiramos acción por una justicia social y equidad en nuestras comunidades y en el mundo.

Es más: sus miembros, en este momento, guiados por sus intereses particulares, han decidido formar cuatro sub-grupos: Ambiente, Inmigración, Racismo e Involucramiento Parroquial. A través de anuncios en el boletín, programas que ofrecen, peticiones que nos han invitado a firmar y acciones que nos animan a tomar, estos sub-grupos nos han ayudado a educarnos y motivar-

Spiritual Life

Spiritual Exercises to begin in September

At the heart of our identity as a Jesuit parish is the experience of prayer and intimacy with God that is offered through the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola.

Beginning in September, the parish will be offering the Spiritual Exercises as the 19th Annotation Retreat in Daily Life. Through this 30 week retreat experience, retreatants come to a greater awareness of God’s presence in their lives.

Retreatants commit to:
- Daily Prayer
- Meeting twice a month with an individual spiritual director
- Meeting twice a month for group prayer and faith sharing on Sundays from 3:30 p.m. to 5 p.m.

To receive an application, please contact Kathy Maher, Spiritual Life Coordinator, at Katherine.maher@bc.edu.

Certainly, every parishioner is invited and welcomed to get involved in this Commission and other Commissions and ministries of the parish.

Let us pray, then, particularly on this feast celebrating the Eucharist, that our own parish through our individual and collective prayers, commissions, and ministries may grow and develop ever more fully into the Body of Christ – his hands, feet, eyes, and compassion – channels of peace, justice and reconciliation.

Peace, Fr. Joe
Book Discussion

June 24th at 11:15 a.m.
Parish Office Living Room

Join us for a discussion of the book The Line Becomes a River: Dispatches From the Border by Francesco Cantú. For the author, the border is in his blood: his mother, a park ranger and daughter of a Mexican immigrant, raised him in the scrublands of the Southwest. Haunted by the landscape of his youth, Cantú joins the Border Patrol. This book goes behind the headlines, making urgent and personal the violence our border wreaks on both sides of the line. Come on June 24th to discuss Cantú’s closeup and personal story of his work with the U.S. Border Patrol.

Men’s Spiritual Growth

The purpose of the Men’s Spiritual Growth meetings is to deepen our relationship with God and others in our everyday lives. We do this with the help of the 3-Minute Retreat from Loyola Press and with faith sharing. Meetings are held on first and third Wednesday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the parish office (the next meeting will be on June 20th). New members are always welcome!

Music Ministry

As our 10 a.m. choir takes a break for the summer, we express our deep appreciation for their dedication in leading our music on Sunday mornings. We are most grateful for the time and talent they share with us to enrich the 10 a.m. liturgy throughout the year with their beautiful music making. While they go on break, our other music ministry groups are welcoming in new members throughout the summer. Our Spanish Coro sings at the noon liturgy in the Lannon Chapel and our Contemporary Ensemble leads music at the 5:30 p.m. Sunday liturgy. Anyone interested in participating can contact Michael Burgo at 552-6108 or burgo@bc.edu

Peace, Justice & Reconciliation Commission

Our next commission meeting is Tuesday, June 12th at 7:15 p.m. in the Parish Office Garden Level. New members are welcome. To get involved, contact Tim Manning at mannintl@bc.edu.

Green Team

Prayer:

We kneel today amid your creation –
A world that is, in many ways, more splendid than ever
But, in too many ways, scarred beyond recognition
Turn us from our unmindfulness.
Help our touch be light.
Help us renew the world that supports us
So we may once more know creation
As it was in the beginning.

Action: Replace paper towels and/or napkins with sturdier cloth napkins and dish towels.

ARRUPE
Assisting Refugee Resettlement Using Parish Energies

Support Refugees:
- Pray for refugees and those who assist them
- Contribute to the ARRUPE collection at St. Ignatius Parish - June 2nd, 3rd or online at stignatiuschestnuthill.org/donate
- Join ARRUPE

People in refugee status have been lawfully admitted to the United States because of a well-founded fear of persecution.

Food Cards: Our supply of food cards is very low, so it’s time to ask for donations of them for those who come to us in need of assistance. $10 Stop and Shop or Shaw’s/Star cards work best. You may drop off your donation at the Parish Office or drop it in the collection basket at a weekend Mass. Thanks!

Project Bread: Walk 2018 is history, but the work of Project Bread goes on! Work is being done just about 24/7 to help those who are food insecure. Donations are gratefully accepted to assist Project Bread in its mission. The Project Bread website spells out just what is being done and what is hoped to be accomplished in the days and months ahead.

Cor Unum Meal Center:
We’ll be serving supper to Guests at Cor Unum in Lawrence on two Saturday nights: June 23rd and July 28th. It is hoped that we can send at least ten volunteers to serve on each evening. Families are welcome to be part of the crew; children must be at least ten to do that. If you’d like to sign on or would like further information, please call Sr. Diane – 617-552-6107.

Parish Summer Schedule
The Parish Office will close at 3 p.m. on Fridays in June.
Daily Mass will continue as scheduled at 12:15 and 5:30 p.m., Monday - Friday.
Confession will continue during the summer.
There will be no Adoration this summer starting June 1st.

Rejoice!
We are pleased to share the good news that former parishioner Sr. Marilyn Dunphy, MHSH, will be making her final vows in the Mission Helpers of the Sacred Heart on Friday, June 8th. Let us keep Marilyn in prayer on that day and the days ahead.
