CHURCH OF SAINT IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA
The Seventeenth and Eighteenth Sundays in Ordinary Time
Décimo Séptimo y Décimo Octavo Domingos del Tiempo Ordinario

July 29th and August 5th, 2018

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

La mano del Señor nos nutre; él responde a todas nuestras necesidades.
Dear Parishioners,

Each year on July 31st we celebrate the feast of St. Ignatius Loyola, the patron and namesake of our parish. Born in 1491, Ignatius was at first a brave, committed soldier. Sometime after the battle of Pamplona in 1521, he begins a conversion that would turn his life around. He would become a pilgrim, mystic, priest, teacher, spiritual guide and writer, the founder of a religious order, and a brave, committed disciple of Christ who shaped our Catholic tradition with a distinct spirituality.

That spirituality is captured, of course, in his Spiritual Exercises. Part of his spirituality is also captured in what are known as the Scintillae Ignatianae (or Sparks of Ignatius). Initially compiled in 1715 from Ignatius’ letters and other writings by Jesuit scholar Gabriel Hevenesi, this collection of 365 maxims, one for every day of the year, continues to challenge, enlighten and encourage us today. Here are a few that I hope you might reflect upon during these longer summer days.

There is only one worthy ambition – to love God, and as a reward of that love to grow in loving Him.

Take care lest the children of the world spend more care and attention on transitory things than you do on seeking those that are eternal.

Lord, what do I desire except You. What could I wish for besides You? It is not enough that I should serve God by myself; I must help the hearts of all to love him and the tongues of all to praise him.

Nothing is more pleasant than to love God, provided this love moves you to undergo many tribulations.

If you wish to advance in the love of God, speak of it. Spiritual conversations are to clarify what the wind is to flame.

God love me. He loves me much more than I love myself.

I prefer the servants of God to stand out in virtue rather than in number, and to be distinguished more by deeds than by an honorable name.

You may be sure that the progress you make in spiritual things will be in proportion to the degree of your withdrawal from self-love and concern for your own welfare.

The way to avoid distress and affliction of mind in this world is to strive to conform our will wholly to God’s.

Never say or do anything until you have asked yourself whether it will be pleasing to God, good for yourself, and edifying to your neighbor.

Go and set the whole world on fire.

Blessings,

Fr. Joe

Estimados feligreses:

Cada año, el 31 de julio, celebramos la fiesta de San Ignacio de Loyola, el santo patrón de nuestra parroquia. Nacido en 1491, Ignacio fue, en primer lugar, un soldado valiente y comprometido. Algo después de la batalla de Pamplona, en 1521, comenzó una conversión que cambiaría completamente su vida. Se convertiría en peregrino, místico, sacerdote, maestro, guía espiritual y escritor, el fundador de una orden religiosa, y un valiente y comprometido discípulo de Cristo que moldeó nuestra tradición católica con una distintiva espiritualidad.

Esa espiritualidad está captada, por supuesto, en sus Ejercicios Espirituales. Parte de su espiritualidad también está captabda en lo que se conoce como la Scintillae Ignatianae (o Chispas Ignacianas). Inicialmente compilado en 1715 de las cartas de Ignacio y otros escritos por el académico jesuita Gabriel Hevenesi, esta colección de 365 máximas, una para cada día del año, continúa desafiándonos, iluminándonos y animándonos hoy. He aquí algunas, que espero que ustedes reflexionen durante estos largos días del verano.

Solo hay una ambición digna – amar a Dios, y como recompensa de ese amor, creer en amarlo.

Cuida de que los hijos del mundo no le presten más atención y cuidado a las cosas transitorias que a buscar las que son eternas.

Señor, ¿qué más anhelo sino a Ti? ¿Qué más deseo además de Tí?

No es suficiente que sirva a Dios por mí mismo: debo ayudar a los corazones de todos para amarlo y las lenguas de todos para alabarlo.

No hay nada más placentero que amar a Dios, siempre que este amor los mueva a sobrellevar muchas tribulaciones.

Si quieres avanzar en el amor de Dios, habla sobre él. Las conversaciones espirituales son a la caridad lo que el viento es al fuego Dios me ama. Me ama mucho más de lo que yo me amo.

Prefiero que los servidores de Dios se distingan por su virtud que por su número, y distinguirse aún más por los hechos que por un nombre honorable.

Pueden estar seguros de que el progreso que hagan en las cosas espirituales será en proporción al grado de apartamiento del amarse a uno mismo y a la preocupación por su propio bienestar.

La manera de evitar la angustia y la aflicción de la mente en este mundo es esforzándose por ajustar totalmente nuestra voluntad con la de Dios.

Nunca digan o hagan algo sin preguntarse si será agradable a Dios, bueno para ustedes y edificante para su próximo. Vayan y enciendan el mundo.

Bendiciones:

P. Joe

Prayer:
O Lord, help us turn from the selfish consumption of Resources meant for all and to see the impacts of our choices on the poor and vulnerable.

Action: The price you pay for electricity is largely determined but the amount of energy we use during the hottest afternoons of the summer. When we crank our AC and fans to the max, New England’s energy grid gets overwhelmed, causing utility companies to turn-on the most expensive and most polluting types of power plants to make sure they can meet demand. Because this energy production is so expensive, the amount of energy used on these days drives up the cost for energy that customers pay throughout the year. By using just a little less during those times, we can drastically reduce how much electricity costs by and decrease the need to burn dirty fuels.

RCIA

Are you Interested in becoming Catholic? St. Ignatius Parish invites you to discern the decision to become a fully initiated Catholic through the process of the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA). This could be for you if:

- you've never been baptized and wish to explore a relationship with God through the Catholic faith
- you're a baptized Christian who would like to share fully in Catholic communion through Eucharist and Confirmation
- you're a Catholic who hasn't yet celebrated the Sacraments of Eucharist and/ or Confirmation

In the context of a supportive small-group learning community, the RCIA group explores the richness of Catholicism and reflects on the meaning of faith in daily life. Beginning in late September, we meet weekly on Sundays, 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. Sessions continue through Easter, culminating with the celebration of the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil, and conclude in early May. There is also the option to join the Boston College RCIA group, which meets on Monday evenings, 7:00 p.m.-8:30 p.m.

Evangelization Focus

“Evangelization must be the first focus of our Church. Then, the corporal and spiritual works of mercy, which result from living and sharing the Gospel, will transform the culture around us. We have the mission ‘to repair the world,’ what the Jews call Tik’un olam.”

~Cardinal Sean O’Malley
