Son of God, Jesus, you became part of this earth
and you gazed upon this world with human eyes.
Today you are alive in every creature in your risen glory.
Praise be to you!

Jesús, hijo de Dios, fuiste parte de este mundo y lo miraste con ojos humanos.
Hoy vives en cada criatura en tu gloria resucitada.
¡Alabado seas!
Dear Parishioners,

Easter Monday, April 22nd, marked the 49th anniversary of the first Earth Day.

Since we try to celebrate Earth Day as a parish each year, it is fitting that this year we are doing so on the same weekend that we celebrate Divine Mercy. The joining together of these two celebrations certainly underscores Pope Francis’s understanding that “the works of mercy also include care for our common home.”

The official theme for this year’s Earth Day is “Protect Our Species.” This theme is captured in a simple quote by the American marine biologist, author and conservationist, credited with advancing the global environmental movement, Rachel Carson (1907–1964). She writes: “In nature, nothing exists alone.” Pope Francis similarly writes in his encyclical, Laudato Si: “Because all creatures are connected, each must be cherished with love and respect, for all of us as living creatures are dependent on one another.”

Protection is needed because our species, human or homo sapiens, are responsible, according to earthday.org, for upsetting the balance of nature and thus fostering the greatest rate of extinction since the time when dinosaurs roamed the earth some 60 million years ago.

While this website provides us with this startling and disturbing news, it also give us some glimmers of hope, namely, “the good news is that the rate of extinctions can still be slowed, and many of our declining, threatened and endangered species can still recover if we work together now to build a united global movement of consumers, voters, educators, faith leaders, and scientists to demand immediate action.”

It has been a gift to our parish that we have a number of parishioners who help us with advocacy by taking part in our Peace, Justice and Reconciliation Commission. As you know, in addition to our Racism and Immigration sub-committees, we also have a Green Team sub-committee.

In 2017, the Green Team invited us to sign the Laudato Si’ Pledge that invites us as individuals and as a parish community to:

• Pray with and for all creation: “Our relationship with the environment can never be isolated from our relationship with others and with God.”—Laudato Si’ 119

• Live simply: “There is a nobility in the duty to care for creation through little daily actions.”—Laudato Si’ 211

• Advocate: “There is an urgent need to develop policies so that, in the next few years, the emission of carbon dioxide and other highly polluting gases can be drastically reduced.”—Laudato Si’ 26

I am happy to report that since taking that pledge the parish has taken a number of steps to do our part to “protect our species.” As a Jesuit Parish, recently given a Universal Apostolic Preference “to collaborate in the care of our Common Home,” we simply must do more (the magis). As a start, the more could be to see our Green Team grow!

May I invite you on this Divine Mercy Sunday to consider how you might grow as an instrument of God’s mercy in the world. Might it be to join the Green Team?

Praise be,
Fr. Joe

Estimados Feligreses:

El lunes de Pascua, el 22 de abril, fue el 49º aniversario del primer día de la Tierra.

Desde que tratamos de celebrar el Día de la Tierra como parroquia cada año, es apropiado que este año lo hagamos en el mismo fin de semana en que celebramos la Divina Misericordia. El juntar estas dos celebraciones ciertamente subraya el entendimiento del Papa Francisco que “las obras de misericordia también incluyen el cuidado de nuestro hogar común.”

El tema oficial del Día de la Tierra de este año es “ Protege a nuestras Especies.” Él es capturado en una cita de la bióloga marina, autora y conservacionista Rachel Carson, (1907-1964), acreditada por avanzar el movimiento ambiental global. Escribió: “en la naturaleza, nada existe por sí solo.” El Papa Francisco escribe similarmente en su encíclica Laudato Si que: “porque todas las criaturas están conectadas, cada una debe ser apreciada con amor y respeto por todos nosotros, como criaturas vivas que dependen unas de las otras.”

La protección es necesaria porque nuestra especie, humana u homo sapiens, es responsable, de acuerdo a earthday.org, de alterar el equilibrio de la naturaleza y, por ende, promover una alta tasa de extinción, similar a la de la época de cuando los dinosaurios andaban por la tierra, hace unos 60 millones de años.

Mientras este sitio web nos provee estas noticias alarmantes y perturbadoras, también nos da un rayo de esperanza, es decir, “la buena noticia es que la tasa de extinciones puede ser todavía desacelerada, y muchas de nuestras especies amenazadas y en peligro se pueden recuperar si trabajamos unidos en un movimiento global de consumidores, votantes, educadores, líderes de fe y científicos, en demandar una acción inmediata.

Ha sido un don para nuestra parroquia el tener un número de feligreses que nos ayuda a abogar al formar parte de nuestra Comisión de Paz, Justicia y Reconciliación. Como saben, además de nuestros sub comités de Racism e Inmigración, también tenemos al Equipo Verde.

En 2017, el Equipo Verde nos invitó a firmar la Petición del Laudato Si que nos invita como individuos y como comunidad parroquial a:

• Rezar con toda la creación: “nuestra relación con el ambiente nunca puede ser aislada de nuestra relación con los demás y con Dios.” —Laudato Si 119

• Vivir simplemente: “Hay nobleza en el deber de cuidar de la creación a través de pequeñas acciones diarias.” —Laudato Si 211

• Abogar: “Hay una necesidad urgente de diseñar políticas de manera que, en los próximos años las emisiones de dióxido de carbono y otros gases contaminantes puedan ser reducidas drásticamente.” —Laudato Si 26

Me alegra reportar que desde que hicimos esa petición, la parroquia ha adoptado un número de pasos para hacer nuestra parte en “proteger a las especies.” Como parroquia jesuita, a la cual recientemente se le dio la Preferencia Apostólica Universal de “colaborar en el cuidado de nuestro hogar común,” simplemente nos esforzamos siempre en hacer más (el magis). Como punto de partida, ¡el “más” podría ser ver crecer a nuestro Equipo Verde!

Me gustaría invitarlos en este Domingo de la Divina Misericordia a considerar cómo podríamos crecer como un instrumento de la misericordia de Dios. ¿Podría ser unirse al Equipo Verde?

Alabado sea:
P. Joe

CRS Rice Bowls
Time to return your filled Rice Bowl! Bowls may be placed in the large bowl on the Outreach table or on the table in the Lannon Chapel. Thank you for being a part of this important CRS effort for those in our country and beyond.

Green Team
Prayer
All creation gives God praise. On this day, O Lord, as we celebrate Earth Day, help us to have a change of heart. To understand deeply that everything is connected. “We are part of nature, included in it, and thus in constant interaction with it.” Help us to reverence and defend the earth in all its manifestations.

Action - Plant a Tree
Think about planting a tree or protecting trees in your neighborhood. Two mature trees provide enough oxygen for one person to breathe over the course of a year. Forests improve public health by keeping pollutants out of our lungs by trapping and removing dust, ash, pollen, and smoke.

Additional Actions this Mercy2Earth Sunday:
1. Sign the Laudato Si Pledge as an individual or family at LiveLaudatoSi.org
2. Look for ways in your personal life to Reduce, Reuse, Recycle, Repair, and Refuse.
3. Join the Green Team!
Meetings are held 1 - 2 times a month at 11 a.m. on Sundays. Contact Debra at debracpackard@gmail.com for more details.

TO ENCOURAGE. TO INSPIRE.
Boston Priests Answer the Call.

Growing up on the edge of poverty, Hector wrestled with homelessness, and was struggling to find food. While playing basketball in a local Church league, he met Fr. Paul O’Brien, who encouraged him to go to college.

Fr. Paul was there for Hector at every step of his journey to college and beyond. With his help and guidance, Hector went on to play basketball for Regis College, graduate, and now works as a school counselor to give back to students the same hope and inspiration he received. Like Fr. Paul, our senior priests in good standing have been helping others for decades.

As we celebrate this Easter with our families and friends, please remember the Boston priests who have helped us along our life journey and consider making a gift of thanks to the special Easter collection for their health and retirement needs.

Funds from this special collection are managed by the Clergy Health and Retirement Trust – an independently managed trust with a majority lay board of trustees. The funds are used for the sole benefit of active and senior priests in good standing.
