The Good Shepherd...
what is he calling us to do?
where does he want us to go?
how do we hear his voice?

El Buen Pastor...
¿a qué nos está llamando?
¿a dónde nos quiere llevar?
¿cómo escuchamos su voz?
Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate Mother’s Day.

I did not know until recently that besides Anna Jarvis, who began a campaign in 1906 to have Mother’s Day officially recognized in the United States, Julia Ward Howe – an abolitionist best remembered as the poet who wrote “Battle Hymn of the Republic” – pre-dated her in working to establish a Mother’s Peace Day. In 1870 she penned the following Proclamation which was to stand as the goal of the original holiday:

_Arise, all women who have hearts, whether your baptism be that of water or of tears! Say firmly: “We will not have great questions decided by irrelevant agencies, our husbands shall not come to us, reeking with carnage, for caresses and applause.

“Our sons shall not be taken from us to unlearn all that we have been able to teach them of charity, mercy and patience. We women of one country will be too tender of those of another country to allow our sons to be trained to injure theirs.”

From the bosom of the devastated earth a voice goes up with our own. It says, “Disarm, disarm! The sword is not the balance of justice.” Blood does not wipe out dishonor nor violence indicate possession.

As men have often forsaken the plow and the anvil at the summons of war, let women now have all that may be left of home for a great and earnest day of counsel. Let them meet first, as women, to bewail and commemorate the dead. Let them then solemnly take counsel with each other as to the means whereby the great human family can live in peace, each learning after his own time, the sacred impress, not of Caesar, but of God.

_In the name of womanhood and of humanity, I earnestly ask that a general congress of women without limit of nationality may be appointed and held at some place deemed most convenient and at the earliest period consistent with its objects, to promote the alliance of the different nationalities, the amicable settlement of international questions, the great and general interests of peace._

While Julia Ward Howe might express things a bit differently if she were alive today, her vision surely still stirs our hearts. Along with honoring mothers and motherhood this Sunday, perhaps we can also pray for and commit ourselves to work for true peace in families, in our Church, our nation and our world. May we also promote an alliance of different nationalities so that racism and racial oppression may be eradicated. And finally, may our honoring of mothers and motherhood extend to all women so that violence against women, sexual harassment and forms of inequality and injustice towards women may find no place in our civil society and Church.

Paz:
P. Joe

Deseo que el honrar a las madres y la maternidad se extienda a todas las mujeres, de manera que la violencia contra la mujer, el acoso sexual y toda forma de desigualdad e injusticia contra ellas no tengan sitio en nuestra sociedad civil.

Sin duda, si manifestamos alrededor de esta visión positiva, inspirada en la proclama de Howe. Veremos la “gloria de la venida del Señor.”

¡Feliz Día de la Madre! ¡Aleluya!

Peace,
P. Joe

Immigration Committee
Scripture passage to pray about during the week:
"My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me." John 10:27
When I meet my immigrant sisters and brothers, can they recognize in me a disciple of the Lord, who also calls them by name and to life?
Pasaje de las Escrituras con que rezar esta semana:
"Mis ovejas escuchan mi voz, yo las conozco y ellas me siguen." Juan 10:27
Cuando me encuentro con mis hermanas y hermanos inmigrantes, ¿es posible que ellos reconozcan en mí a un discípulo del Señor, quien también les llama por su nombre y es fuente de vida para ellos?

Green Team
Prayer
All creation gives God praise. All powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest creatures. Enlighten our hearts and help us remain in Your world.

Action - Spend Time Outside
Take some time to appreciate the outdoors this week. Go for a walk, play with your kids, play sports, or go to the park. Enjoy God's beautiful creation at this time of year.
