I am the alpha and the omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.

Yo soy el alfa y el omega, el primero y el último, el principio y el fin.
Dear fellow parishioners,

Last month after communion at the 5:30 p.m. Sunday Mass, I stood on the predella in front of the altar of St. Ignatius and looked out on hundreds of parishioners as they raised their hands and prayed over me. I was one of 30 or so participants who had just completed the 19th annotation of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius.

As Fr. Joe read the words of the blessing, I had a profound feeling of happiness at the gift of the 19th Annotation that I had been given through the ministry of Kathy Maher and those who led the retreat over the previous 30 weeks. Looking out at the congregation was every bit as emotional for me.

A few days later I read an article in the NY Times written by David Brooks on The Difference between Happiness and Joy. At first glance this title seemed to be making a distinction without a difference. As I followed his thoughts, I was reminded of my experience the previous Sunday. I began to understand, through my own lens, the meaning of his article. On the one hand, my “happiness” in that moment of blessing was mine and unique to me. On the other hand, the 30 participants and all of the members of the 5:30 p.m. Mass congregation shared “joy” together in a communal experience of prayer. The congregation was focused on others and helped shape a communal joy.

I have continued to reflect on this distinction between happiness and joy in the context of our sharing together in the Eucharist at Mass. Individually, we experience a unique happiness in the gift of Jesus in the Bread and Wine. It is an individual experience as we receive the Sacrament and is at the center of our spiritual life. There is at the same time a communal feeling of joy as we watch person after person prayerfully approach the moment of receiving Jesus in the Sacrament. Looking around at the faith community in this moment is indeed joyful.

In the midst of the full range of emotions we have experienced in our church and in our parish over the past years, moments of happiness and joy, while not constant, can and do happen. Simultaneous experiences of individual happiness and communal joy are available to us not only when we gather together for Eucharist but also whenever we reach out to one another.

Sharing our faith journey, our stories, with each other is a way we provide opportunities to experience both happiness and joy. Participating in the 19th Annotation and other parish ministries also can provide such opportunities.

May such moments of individual happiness and communal joy continue to be a part of parish life here at St. Ignatius.

With Happiness and Joy,
Denny Martin
Pastoral Council, Chair

Estimados co-feligeres:

El mes pasado, después de la comunión en la misa de las 5:30 del domingo, estaba en la predela, frente al altar de San Ignacio y miraba a los cientos de feligreses que levantaron sus manos y rezaron por mí. Era uno de los 30 participantes que había completado la 19ª Anotación de los Ejercicios Espirituales de San Ignacio.

Mientras el P. Joe leía las palabras de la bendición, tuvo un sentimiento profundo de felicidad por el don de la 19ª Anotación que me había sido dado gracias al ministerio de Kathy Maher y de aquellos que guiaron el retiro las 30 semanas anteriores. Mirar hacia la congregación fue bastante emotivo para mí.

Días más tarde, leí un artículo en el NY Times escrito por David Brooks sobre La Diferencia entre Felicidad y Alegría. A primera vista, este título parecía estar haciendo una distinción sin diferencias. Al seguir sus pensamientos, me recordó la experiencia que tuve el domingo anterior. Comencé a entender, desde mi propio ángulo, el significado de él. Por una parte, mi “felicidad” en ese momento de la bendición era únicamente mía. Por otro lado, los 30 participantes y los miembros congregados en la misa de las 5:30 compartimos juntos “la alegría” en una experiencia comunal. La congregación se enfocó en otros y ayudó a formar una alegría comunal.

He continuado reflexionando en esta distinción entre felicidad y alegría en el contexto del compartir juntos en la Eucaristía durante la misa. Individualmente, experimentamos una felicidad única en el don de Jesús del Pan y el Vino. Es una experiencia individual recibir el Sacramento y esto es el centro de nuestra vida espiritual. Al mismo tiempo, hay un sentimiento comunal de alegría al ver, persona tras persona, acercarse en oración a recibir a Jesús Sacramentado. Ver a tu alrededor a toda la comunidad de fe es ciertamente muy alegre.

En medio de una gran cantidad de emociones, hemos experimentado, en nuestra iglesia y en nuestra parroquia, durante los años pasados, momentos de felicidad y alegría, aunque no constantes, pero que pueden y realmente pasan. Experiencias simultáneas de feliz individual y alegría comunal están a nuestra disposición no solo al reunirnos en la Eucaristía sino cada vez que nos contactamos unos y otros.

Compartir nuestro viaje de fe, nuestras historias, con cada uno de nosotros, es una manera de dar oportunidades de experimentar tanto la felicidad como la alegría. Participar en la 19ª Anotación y en otros ministerios de la parroquia pueden proveer dichas oportunidades. Que esos momentos de felicidad individual y alegría comunal continúen siendo parte de la vida parroquial aquí en San Ignacio.

Con Alegría y Felicidad:

Dear Parishioners,

You may have noticed our hedges are overgrown. As you can see from the photo to the left, they cannot be trimmed back any longer.

After consulting with our new Building & Grounds Committee, I have decided that these hedges should be removed. Their removal represents a way of eventually opening the property to address the needs of our Church building. We will also need to put together a phased-in landscaping program that will not hinder the future restoration of our Church. The photo below may provide some idea of our Church property's new look. - Fr. Joe
