GLORY TO THE FATHER, THROUGH THE SON, IN THE SPIRIT
GLORIA AL PADRE, POR MEDIO DEL HIJO, EN EL ESPÍRITU
As we celebrate World Refugee Day this coming Thursday, June 20th, Jesuit Relief Services [JRS/USA] is celebrating through their website (https://www.jrsusa.org) “what refugees can do with their own two hands.” They will be sharing stories of refugees and in doing so give us the ability to use our “own two hands to help refugees not just survive, but thrive.”

Through our ARRUPE (Assisting Refugee Resettlement Using Parish Energies) program here at St. Ignatius, we have been offering, as many of you know, support and friendship for the past 14 months to Mulugeta Abay, a refugee from Eritrea.

With our hands joined to his two hands, Mulugeta is not simply surviving but thriving. After learning some English, he is gainfully employed at Nativity Prep in Jamaica Plain. His job now allows him to handle his rent without relying on our parish’s financial help. Moreover, this being Father’s Day weekend, it is especially nice to announce that he has been able to connect with his three children in Ethiopia. He has not seen them in 10 years, so it will surely be an incredible reunion when he visits with them in Ethiopia for two months this summer.

Through your generosity to ARRUPE, we also are currently providing rental assistance to a mother and her children, refugees from the Democratic Republic of Congo, now living in Lynn.

At this time, ARRUPE is considering accepting another refugee family. The one hesitation we have is that we need more parishioners to lend their two hands to help empower the hands of the family we sponsor. If you would like to be on the list of faithful volunteers sharing your two hands in service, please contact Joan Engler at joan.engler@bc.edu.

May the mystery of the Most Blessed Trinity become our world’s mystery. May it therefore be a reminder to us that all our distinct and diverse cultures are called to be united as one under our one Triune God, a community of persons. Also, please join us in the JRS/USA prayer found on page 3.

Green Team Prayer

O Lord, grant us the grace to grow deeper in our respect and care of our Creation. Help us to recognize the sacredness of all your creatures as signs of your wondrous love. O Lord, help us turn from selfish consumption of resources meant for all and to see the impacts of our choices on the poor and vulnerable.

Action

Consider keeping items from the school year that are still in good condition to be reused next year or at home. Reducing and reusing comes before recycling. This can save money, reduce waste and demonstrate your commitment to sustainability.

Pasaje de las Escrituras con que rezar esta semana:

"Dios ha infundido su amor en nuestros corazones por medio del Espíritu Santo, que él mismo nos ha dado." Romanos 5:5

Cuando el inmigrante pobre o que parece ser muy diferente a mí mira a mis ojos ¿podrá ella o él ver el amor de Dios que el Espíritu Santo ha derramado en mi corazón?

Scripture passage to pray about during the week:

"the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us" Romans 5:5

When the immigrant who is poor or just seems to be very different from me looks into my eyes can she or he see the love of God that the Holy Spirit has poured into my heart?

Gracious God, help us with St. Ignatius to imagine you looking over the wide world you have created and seeing the plight of your children, the sisters and brothers of Jesus, who have been driven from their countries or forcibly displaced within them. We are stunned by the number of “our refugees,” greater than ever since World War II. But you know them each by name—in Iraq and Syria, Jordan and Lebanon, Afghanistan and Myanmar, in country after country in Africa, and now with new desperation in Venezuela and Colombia.

What has become of your world, loving God? How can it be so cruel to so many of the men and women created in your own image and likeness? What hope is there for them?

In fact, what is happening to them assaults our own hope. Yes, there are stirring stories of their strength and resilience, their love of their children and the determination to see them in school, the fact that they can still dance and sing. Anyone who has visited them comes away with a bruised heart but one that also somehow beats stronger. How can this be?

Is it because you despite everything are truly with them, accompanying them as a saving presence even if unseen by human eyes? That is what your prophets have told us. It is also at the center of the preaching of Jesus. Help us, Holy Mystery of our lives, to see you looking down in mercy on your poor and homeless. And then help us to see what our own presence to “our refugees” could be like. Help us, in all our frailty, to embody in some real ways your own presence. Their need is a sacrament for us.

Lord, help us, with the blind man of the Gospel, to see. Amen.

Fr. Leo J. O’Donovan, S.J.

Dios de Gracia, ayúdanos con San Ignacio a imaginar tu mirada sobre el ancho mundo que creaste y ver el ruego de tus hijos, los hermanos y hermanas de Jesús, que han sido desplazados de sus países o de sus lugares de origen. Estamos pasmados por el número de “nuestros refugiados,” mayor que nunca desde la Segunda Guerra Mundial. Pero tú los conoces bien por sus nombres—en Irak y Siria, Jordania y el Libano, Afganistán y Myanmar, país tras país en África, y ahora, con nueva desesperación, en Venezuela y Colombia.

¿En qué se ha convertido tu mundo, oh Dios de Amor? ¿Cómo poder ser tan cruel con tantos hombres y mujeres, creados a tu imagen y semejanza? ¿Qué esperanza pueden tener? De hecho, lo que les pasa asalta nuestra propia esperanza. Sí, hay historias emocionantes de su fortaleza y resistencia, de su amor por sus hijos y la determinación de verlos en una escuela, y del hecho de que todavía son capaces de bailar y cantar. Cualquiera que los ha visitado sale con un corazón magullado, pero que late con mayor fuerza. ¿Cómo puede ser posible?

¿Será porque, a pesar de todo, tú verdaderamente estás con ellos, acompañándolos con tu presencia salvadora, a pesar ser ella invisible a los ojos humanos? Eso fue lo que nos anunciaron tus profetas. También está en el centro de la prédica de Jesús. Ayúdanos Santo Misterio de nuestras vidas, a ver con tu mirada de misericordia a tus pobres y tus “sin techo.” Y ayúdanos a ver el impacto que nuestra presencia en “nuestros refugiados” puede hacer. Ayúdanos, en nuestra fragilidad, a incorporar de formas reales tu presencia. Sus necesidades son un sacramento para nosotros. Señor, ayúdanos a ver, tal como hiciste con el ciego del Evangelio. Amén.

Celebration of Fr. Peter Folan, S.J.
Sunday, June 23rd | 11 a.m.
Vanderslice Hall - Cabaret Room

Peter Folan first came to Saint Ignatius in Chestnut Hill about 7 years ago to study theology. In that time, he was ordained first as a deacon, and later a priest.

Since his arrival he has mostly remained in Boston and in our community while he pursued his Ph.D. at Boston College. Over these 7 years, Peter has become an integral member of our parish community, beloved by many.

Father Peter will soon defend his dissertation and move on to a new role at Georgetown University as Rev. Dr. Peter - Assistant Professor in the Department of Theology and Religious Studies.

After the 10:00 a.m. Mass, we will host a potluck brunch next door to our church in Vanderslice Hall's Cabaret Room for parishioners to say goodbye to Father Peter. Please bring a dish and join us in thanking Fr. Peter and wishing him well.

Liturgy Commission

We would like to invite you to begin a new liturgical practice at our Parish!

Many have expressed how awkward it feels, if they are not receiving from the Chalice, the Most Holy Blood, to just walk by it after receiving a blessing or partaking of the Bread, the Most Holy Body.

Beginning next weekend, when we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, we are inviting all parishioners not receiving from the Chalice to make a reverential gesture. For this gesture we suggest that you may either pause before the Chalice and lower your head in acknowledgment or you may actually take the Chalice in your own hands, pause momentarily, and then hand it back to the Eucharistic Minister.

If enough parishioners begin to incorporate this practice into their regular worship, others, even visitors, may begin to adopt this devotional act as well.

Our hope is that this new practice will be a real opportunity for our parish community to become more fully engaged in the "source and summit of the Christian life," that is, in the celebration of the Eucharist which includes both the bread and the wine, the Most Holy Body and the Most Holy Blood.
