Luke 18:1
Sainte Anne Parish

Sainte Anne Parish is a faith community in the Roman Catholic tradition. We strive to live up to the motto: "We Are Family". We see ourselves as a local expression of the universal Church, the People of God, the Body of Christ. Through God’s grace we seek to be welcoming and loving. Our life centers on the weekend celebration of the Eucharist. We meet Jesus Christ in the Eucharist and are then challenged to bring His love to others.

O glorious St. Ann, you are filled with compassion for those who invoke you and with love for those who suffer! Heavily burdened with the weight of my troubles, I cast myself at your feet and humbly beg of you to take the present intention which I recommend to you in your special care.

Please recommend it to your daughter, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and place it before the throne of Jesus, so that He may bring it to a happy issue. Continue to intercede for me until my request is granted. But, above all, obtain for me the grace one day to see my God face to face, and with you and Mary and all the saints to praise and bless Him for all eternity. Amen.

Artiles need to be submitted, in writing, to the Rectory by 11:00 am Friday the week before the Bulletin is printed.

Dear People of God, in our last segment, we discussed that God told Moses that the only way Moses will be able to see God is to see God’s back. In this sense, to see the face of God is to follow God, to be behind God. But we also acknowledged that the desire to see God’s face, found in the human heart, could not have been placed there by God if God could not satisfy that desire. As Maurice Blondel, the French philosopher argues in his L’Action, the one thing necessary, the desire for the infinity, is not only a logical necessity, it is also an existential necessity, in that a desire that is present in the human heart demands a fulfilment. For the believer, God could not have placed the desire in the human heart for the face of God, if such a desire could not be satisfied by God.

In this context, the cry for Moses takes on a new meaning: “I pray thee, show me thy face” (Exodus 33:18). Moses does not see the face of God, for as God said to Moses, “You cannot see my face” (Exodus 33:20). Even though Moses is closest to God, capable of entering into the cloud of God’s presence and to speak with God as a friend speaks to a friend, it is only the “last Moses” the “new Moses,” as Benedict XVI points out, “that will be granted to what was refused to the first one – a real, immediate vision of the face of God, and thus the ability to speak entirely from seeing, not just from looking at God’s back” (Joseph Ratzinger/Benedict XVI, Jesus of Nazareth, Vol. I, 5-6). This implies that the new Moses will usher in a greater Covenant than that brought about by Moses at Sinai (Hebrews 9:11-24).

Dear People of God at Ste Anne’s, this is the background thanks to which we can understand the prologue of the Gospel of John: “No one has ever seen God; it is the only Son, who is nearest to the Father’s heart, who has made him known” (John 1:18). In Jesus of Nazareth, therefore, the promise made to Moses, and through Moses, to all of Israel, has been fulfilled. Moses’ cry to God, “show me your face,” has been fulfilled. Jesus is not just close to God. Jesus is not just a friend of God. Jesus is the Son of God, and as Son of God, Jesus “lives in the most intimate unity with the Father” (Joseph Ratzinger/Benedict XVI, Jesus of Nazareth, 6). And this is why Jesus’ appearance in history marks a turning point in history. And we should note that history is not just about the collective happenings in the world. History is the story of each and every one of us, all of us, here at Ste Anne’s. Each one of us is history because each one of us is willed by God, called into being by God, known by God and destined for God. There is no “unplanned” human being. (To be continued – Fr Maurice).

Kinship Across Borders: A Christian Ethic of Immigration in Troubled Times

Kristin E. Heyer, Ph.D., Professor of Theological Ethics at Boston College will present this lecture and discussion on Sunday, October 27, 2019 from 2-4 pm at St. John the Baptist Church Hall, 19 Chestnut Street, Peabody, MA. The fear-based approaches that currently shape the immigration debate in our country can distort the realities that migrants face. In this lecture Dr. Heyer will explore the contributions that Scripture and the Catholic social tradition offer, envisioning a future of civic kinship with moral, spiritual and policy implications.

This program is sponsored by Voice of the Faithful North Shore-Seacoast Affiliate. All are invited. Free will offerings are appreciated. For further information call John and Barbara Gould, 978-535-2321

Tuesday Evening Adoration and Rosary: Please join in the Tuesday evening 6:30p.m. Eucharistic Adoration and Praying of the Holy Rosary. With extra effort we could fill our chapel with praying people. Pray especially for the renewal and growth of Ste. Anne Parish. Mary, the Mother of the Lord, has constantly asked for the daily praying of the Rosary. At the very least try to join in this prayer once a week.

Sacrament of the Sick: One of the gifts of the Second Vatican Council was the renewal of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. This beautiful sacrament is no longer reserved for a person in danger of death, but should be celebrated by anyone with a serious illness, a person facing serious surgery, or a person in a weakened condition. The next celebration of this sacrament will be following the 8:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday October 20th. The sacrament is also available for people in their homes by calling the rectory at 978-744-1930. Anyone terminally ill or beginning Hospice Care should receive this sacrament as soon as possible.

St. Michael Prayer: In view of the many crises throughout the world, in our own country, and in the Church, a growing number of the American bishops are requiring or requesting that the Prayer to St. Michael, the Archangel, be prayed at the end of every Mass. We are now praying this prayer after Daily Mass and on the weekends at all Masses. It is found in the bulletin and can be found on the back cover of the Heritage Missal. This prayer was also prayed after each Mass until the 1960s. Pray it also in your families.

Powerful Prayer to Saint Michael
Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host - by the Divine Power of God - cast into hell, satan and all the evil spirits, who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Also at the time of the death of a loved one, memorial donations can be earmarked for the parish. Include this request in the obituary notice. Many parish communities have benefited greatly from such memorial gifts. This is a wonderful way to make sure Ste. Anne Parish is on a secure financial footing now and able to continue to serve the community effectively in the future. Think about it and Thank You!

The secretary at our school is a computer wizard, explaining the inner workings of word processors, spreadsheets and accounting programs to the confused and the lost! When asked how she knew so much, she said that she always read the directions and all the information she could find online. Even though she knew the programs, she was always reviewing, learning something new or discovering a new way of using the computer to make her job better.

As the early Church community was growing, St. Paul reminds Timothy that the Scriptures are the source of wisdom. They lead us to faith in Jesus and to salvation. They are the directions of faith that teach us the ways of God. Follow Him and He will lead us to the life of Heaven. In word and deed, all of the baptized are called to preach the Gospel, teaching the truth of the Gospel as we support and help one another. That’s what it means to be a member of the community of faith.

We all need a refresher course in faith from time to time. Reviewing the basics, learning more about Scripture, deepening our understanding of the sacraments or discovering something about our history can renew our sense of connection, our dedication to our mission and an appreciation of who we are as a community of faith. There is always something new to learn, or something to remember, or a new level of understanding to achieve that will help us explain, defend or grow our faith. Sometimes it just pays to read—and reread—the directions!
