Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed Him.

Dear Burlington Catholic Collaborative,

Jesus begins to preach in Galilee and calls his first disciples. Jesus' public ministry begins after his baptism by John the Baptist and after his retreat to the desert where he was tempted by the devil. He is now calling his first disciples. The Gospel tells us that the fishermen (Peter and Andrew, James and John) dropped everything to follow Jesus immediately. I wonder if they knew him before he called them. I wonder if they heard him preach. My guess is: no. Maybe they heard about him through John the Baptist’s testimony. Jesus must have had a commanding presence to them for them to immediately follow him. They followed him around Galilee. Then they saw with their own eyes and heard with their own ears the works and words of Jesus. They heard him teach and proclaim the gospel of the kingdom and saw Jesus cure so many people he came in contact with. If they didn’t know Jesus before he called them, they certainly knew Jesus by what they heard and saw the first few days they were with him. They saw, they believed, and then they testified who he was. We have seen for ourselves, we believe in Jesus. May the good Lord give us the strength to testify to all the world as the first disciples did.

The Cold and Flu Season is upon us. Please be cautious if you are not feeling well. You may wish to refrain from shaking hands at the Sign of Peace. If you are a Eucharistic Minister and have symptoms, please find a replacement. If you are experiencing symptoms, please know that your obligation to participate in Mass and receive Holy Communion is lifted. Please use your common sense in this regard. We received the following Memorandum from the Office of Divine Worship regarding the Suspension of the Distribution of the Precious Blood.

“Given recent reports from the Massachusetts Department of Public Health and the CDC, the Office of Divine Worship is recommending that all parishes, shrines and chapels within the Archdiocese refrain from distributing the Precious Blood to the faithful until further notice.” From this point forward, only the Priest will receive the Precious Blood at the celebration of Daily and Weekend Masses. It will not be given to the congregation or the Eucharistic Ministers until further notice.

Fraud Alert, AGAIN!. On July 7th in the Bulletin we wrote the following statement: “Someone has been texting and emailing people whose contact information is listed in our websites and bulletins claiming to be Fr. Mahoney asking for hundreds of dollars in gift cards. They have been targeting Catholic Churches within the Archdiocese for the past many months. Do NOT give to these people.” I was informed by a couple of parishioners whose contact information is listed on our websites that they are at it again. Again, do NOT give to these people. I would NEVER ask anyone for gift cards in emails or text messages.

Congratulation to Fr. Fabian. He emailed me this past week to let me know that his interview with the U.S. Embassy in Abuja, Nigeria went very well and he has been granted his R-1 Visa. He has now traveled to his home town to visit with his dear elderly mother and some family members. Fr. Fabian will return to us on February 15. Please pray for an enjoyable and safe trip. We look forward to his return.

Let us pray for each other. God bless,

Father Mahoney

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

A writing student once made the observation that, once she learned some basic rules of grammar, she paid a lot more attention not only to the way she wrote, but also to the way she spoke. Having learned the correct way to use certain words, she could not return to her bad habits and mistakes. Her newfound knowledge changed her language forever.

Jesus preaches a new message of God’s love and mercy. Once people hear it, they must make a choice to either accept or reject it. Either way, they are changed forever. God’s love seeks them out, manifesting itself in words and actions, in people and events, and in their innermost thoughts and feelings. All listeners are called to reform their lives and build the Kingdom of God.

Our desire to live the Gospel can be overwhelmed by other influences. The daily grind of living, the comfort of material possessions, and our sincere wish to be liked by others can draw us away from the difficult choices that we know we need to make. Being honest and true to our mission always includes sacrifice. But it is the way to life and truth and grace.

~James Gaffney
