Mission Statement
Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish
Lawrence ~ Methuen

Our Lady of Good Counsel is a diverse multi-cultural parish serving the Catholic community of Methuen and Lawrence. We are committed to building a community of faith intent upon God, in unity of mind and heart.

We are a family of believers, joined by our Baptism, and nurtured by the Eucharist. As children of God, we endeavor to bring the love of Christ to all we meet. We are committed to be the Body of Christ, rooted in the tradition of the Catholic Church. Together we worship and praise our God. Guided by prayer and the counsel of the Blessed Mother, we minister to the community through faith formation, fellowship, and service. With diligence, compassion, and love we endeavor to help others come to know and love Jesus. Empowered by grace, constant in our mission, we strive to be led by the Holy Spirit.

From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

This is our third week in the 13th Chapter of the Gospel of Matthew. The Navarre Commentary on Matthew states “Chapter 13 of St Matthew includes as many as seven of Jesus’ parables, which is the reason why it is usually called “the parable discourse” or the “parabolic discourse”. Because of their similarity of content and setting these parables are often called the “Kingdom parables”, and also the “parables of the Lake”, because Jesus taught them on the shore of Lake Gennesaret.” Lake Gennesaret is also known as the Sea of Galilee. It is a bit like if people go to the State Reservation, Salisbury Beach, Seabrook or Hampton they are all swimming in the same Atlantic Ocean but are in very different places. The town of Gennesaret is in the northwest corner of the Sea of Galilee, between Capernaum and Magdala. At the end of Chapter 13 Jesus finishes preaching and travels southwest to Nazareth, His hometown, where He is rejected by the people. Jesus is preaching a message of the Kingdom of God, but to see it the people are going to have ‘look with new eyes’.

The beginning of Chapter 13 you might recall from our Gospel reading two weeks ago was about the Parable of the Prodigal Sower... the seed was cast in abundance over every sort of soil, and some fell on the path, some fell amidst the rocks, some fell amidst the thorn bushes, and some fell on good soil. Today these final Kingdom Parables use a similar format. Three examples are given, first a treasure that is buried is found, second a merchant is searching for a rare pearl and finally finds it, and a fisherman is putting the effort into fishing and tossing his nets into the sea comes up with quite a haul of fish that have to be sorted through, the good being kept and the bad discarded. Perhaps we can see in these three parables something to consider about our own faith journey.

The treasure was buried and was found apparently by accident. Once found the person knew it was something of value and wanted to keep it. He joyfully goes to buy the field. Some people come to the faith “by accident”. I have known people for example who had not been practicing their faith. When a loved one dies they are all of a sudden thrown into a place where they have to grab on to something. The message of the faith in moments of death is a life-giving and life-affirming one. Where the rest of the world comes with good advice about how to cope and how to bear, the message of Jesus is one of hope in a life that continues. “In my Father’s House there are many dwelling places....”

The merchant searching for the perfect pearl may represent someone who is being more intentional in their quest for spiritual fulfillment. There are people who have a faith, but are seeking meaning and context for that faith. I have known people who have left the Catholic Church in their effort to seek the Truth. Their absence from something “Catholic”, the Mass, the devotions, the Eucharist, the Sacraments, will sometimes help them to appreciate the gift of the Catholic faith in their lives. Jeff Cavins is one of the best examples of someone who had been raised in the Catholic faith but was anxious to find and know Jesus. He did, and even became a Protestant Pastor for a time. His journey brought him back into the Catholic Church and he is today one of the best teachers and evangelists in the Church, totally in love with the Sacraments, especially Eucharist and Confession.

The fisherman tossing his nets into the sea can represent a person who is in the Church and never leaves. He puts a constant effort into participating in the faith life, attends Mass, taking Bible Studies, praying devotions, and the efforts pay off a lot of the time, and he finds things he can keep that will nourish him and make him richer.

All of us have different pathways into the Heart of Jesus. Sometimes we find Him when we are not looking for Him at all. Sometimes we find Him after an exhaustive search for Him. Sometimes we see the Lord we never left in a new and more profound way, and appreciate anew the Church we have been faithful to our whole lives as the place where we encounter, embrace, and receive the Jesus we seek. Jesus’ teaching in parables helps us to reflect on the many different ways we have all traveled to the same Lord, the One True God. The Navarre Commentary says it this way: “On Jesus’ lips, parables are exceptionally effective. By using parables he keeps his listeners’ attention, whether they are uneducated or not, and by means of the most ordinary things of daily life he sheds light on the deepest supernatural mysteries. He used the parable device in a masterly way; his parables are quite unique; they carry the seal of his personality; through them he has graphically shown us the riches of grace, the life of the Church, the demands of the faith and even the mystery of God’s own inner life.”

God Bless, Fr. Chris

Journey OF Faith

17th Sunday In Ordinary Time

In Word & Deed

*A*ntiques Road Show is a popular program on PBS. People bring all kinds of things to experts to learn about them and to have them appraised. Some items are surprisingly valuable, especially small, rare items. They always seem to generate the most interest and surprise. And everyone hopes that they'll find a fortune in some old stuff around the house.

There are many images that Jesus uses to describe the reign of God: a buried treasure, a merchant's search, or sorting out the good from the useless. In each case, someone is searching for something of value or quality. The object of the search is not readily apparent, but once it is found, everything else pales in comparison. One valuable item is

*W*hen he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it.”

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

If you had to evacuate your home in a few minutes, what two or three items would you want to take with you? What's the most priceless thing in your house? Chances are that it is something that has sentimental value: a grandparent's watch, a photo album, or a letter written by a loved one. We know we can always replace things we buy, but the truly valuable things are those that we treasure in our hearts. They represent the bonds of love that make us who we are.

We spend a lot of time pursuing treasure that is not all that valuable. Think of all the time that can be wasted trying to make more money, get a better car, or build a bigger home. Yet we would trade it all for our family, for health, or for love. So why don't we spend more time pursuing the things that count? Choosing your values and then acting on them is a decision that every couple needs to make. Do you take a job that pays more, but requires lots of overtime? Or do you make due with the smaller home or older car so that you can spend time together? Find the things on which you spend the most time, money and effort and you'll find your treasure.

worth more than everything else and no sacrifice is too great to make.

So how does one begin to appraise faith? Or how much is love worth? What is the price of hope? Their value is measured by our willingness to change, our desire to grow and determination to follow the Lord. When we give of ourselves, the Lord fills us with the spiritual gifts that enrich us and make us whole. These gifts are priceless and eternal.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

Today we hear young Solomon meekly asking God for wisdom and understanding so that he might properly distinguish right from wrong and judge with kindness and compassion.

We often find ourselves misleading ourselves about right and wrong or judging others hastily and unfairly. Let us take this opportunity today to pray that we may emulate Solomon and welcome God's wisdom and mercy into our lives so that we can be guided in using right judgment.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive
You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

From the Deacons Desk
Year of the Eucharist
The Real Presence is the real Jesus.

Greetings all,

As we continue our dialogue on the Eucharist questions arise from some parishioners about the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Not that they don't believe but it is to deepen their faith in Jesus our redeemer and Savior.

To understand the characteristics of faith let me first define with a simple definition faith: Faith – Faith seeking to understand.

So, what does this mean? As a faithful and faith filled people we want to become more like Jesus, and that means we want to emulate Jesus and live by His teachings in the Gospels.

When we study scripture, pray and receive the sacraments we will have questions about our faith. That is a good aspect of a faithful person. In coming closer to someone we want to get to know that person more intimately and we do that by asking questions. The same holds true in becoming closer to Jesus. Questioning faithfully give us a greater understanding and unites us to a more intimate relationship with our Savior Jesus Christ.

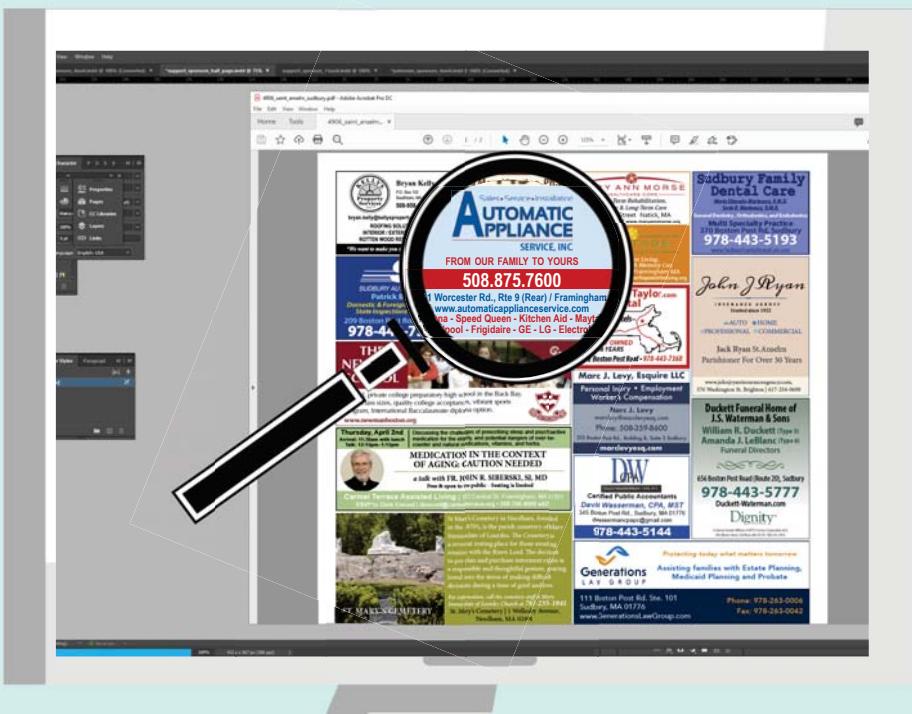

The simplest way to express what Christ asks us to believe about the Real Presence is that the Eucharist is really He. The Real Presence is the real Jesus. We are to believe that the Eucharist began in the womb of the Virgin Mary; that the flesh which the Son of God received from His Mother at the Incarnation is the same flesh into which He changed bread at the Last Supper; that the blood He received from His Mother is the same blood into which He changed wine at the Last Supper. Had she not given Him His flesh and blood there could not be a Eucharist.

We are to believe that the Eucharist is Jesus Christ - simply, without qualification. It is God become man in the fullness of His divine nature, in the fullness of His human nature, in the fullness of His body and soul, in the fullness of everything that makes Jesus, Jesus.

He is in the Eucharist with His human mind and will united with the Divinity, with His hands and feet, His face and features, with His eyes and lips and ears, with His affections and emotions and, with emphasis, with His living, physical Sacred Heart. That is what our Catholic Faith demands of us that we believe. If we believe this, we are Catholic. If we do not, we are not, no matter what people may think we are.

Blessings to all,

Deacon Steve
